FDIC APPROVES ASSUMPTION OF DEPOSITS OF
UNITED BANK OF WACO, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, WACO, TEXAS

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the assumption of the deposits and secured liabilities of United Bank of Waco, National Association, Waco, Texas, by Bank One Texas, National Association, Dallas, Texas.

The failed bank's four offices will reopen on Friday, August 3, 1990, as branches of Bank One Texas, National Association, and its depositors automatically will become depositors of the assuming bank.

United Bank of Waco, National Association, with total assets of $292.9 million, was closed on Thursday, August 2, 1990, by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the FDIC was named receiver.

Bank One Texas, National Association will assume about $282.4 million in 44,400 deposit accounts and has agreed to pay the FDIC a purchase premium of $100,000. It also will purchase certain of the failed bank's assets and will have options to purchase loans and other assets. To facilitate the transaction, the FDIC will advance about $217.8 million to the assuming bank and will retain assets of the failed bank with a book value of about $227.2 million.

The Board of Directors approved the deposit assumption under its authority to do so whenever it determines that such a transaction will reduce the potential loss to the FDIC. The FDIC will recover a portion of its outlay through the liquidation of assets not transferred to the assuming bank.
