MICHAEL J. ZAMORSKI NAMED DEPUTY REGIONAL DIRECTOR FOR DIVISION OF SUPERVISION IN NEW YORK

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation today announced the promotion of Michael J. Zamorski to Deputy Regional Director for the Division of Supervision (DOS) in New York. Mr. Zamorski has been Assistant Regional Director in New York since July, 1989.

DOS Director Paul G. Fritts said: "Mike's depth of background in bank supervision and management experience make him well qualified for this important new assignment."

Mr. Zamorski joined the FDIC in September 1977 as an assistant bank examiner in the Philadelphia Region. He became a commissioned examiner in 1981 and was reassigned to the Hollywood (Florida) Field Office of the Atlanta Region.

He was promoted to review examiner in Philadelphia in 1983 and was reassigned to the Kansas City Region in 1984 in the same capacity. He was one of four managers selected for the FDIC's Executive Selection and Development Program in November 1985. He was assigned to the program until he was promoted to Assistant Regional Director in Dallas in July 1986. In that post he was responsible for bank examination activities in Texas.

A native of Wayne, Pennsylvania, Mr. Zamorski is a graduate (cum laude) of Villanova University, Villanova, Pennsylvania, with a B. S. degree in economics, and of The Stonier Graduate School of Banking. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children.
