FDIC APPROVES DEPOSIT ASSUMPTION OF STATE BANK OF CUBA, CUBA, ILLINOIS

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the assumption of the deposit liabilities of State Bank of Cuba, Cuba, Illinois, by National Bank of Canton, Canton, Illinois.

The failed bank's only office will reopen on Monday, January 12, 1987, as a branch of National Bank of Canton and its depositors automatically will become depositors of the assuming bank, subject to approval by the appropriate court.

State Bank of Cuba, with total assets of $17.5 million, was closed on Friday, January 9, 1987, by John E. Treston, Illinois First Deputy Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies, and the FDIC was named receiver.

National Bank of Canton will assume about $17.6 million in 3,750 deposit accounts and has agreed to pay the FDIC a purchase premium of $310,500. It also will purchase certain of the failed bank's loans and other assets for $15.8 million. To facilitate the transaction, the FDIC will advance $1.6 million to the assuming bank and will retain assets of the failed bank with a book value of about $1.7 million.

The Board of Directors approved the deposit assumption under its authority to do so whenever it determines that such a transaction will reduce the potential loss to the FDIC. The Board made such a finding in this case because of the premium paid by National Bank of Canton.

The FDIC will recover a portion of its outlay through the liquidation of assets not transferred to the assuming bank. In this respect, the FDIC notes that its claim will have priority over the claims of shareholders of the closed bank.
