FDIC NAMES WILLIAM H. ROELLE
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF DACS

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the appointment of William H. Roelle as Associate Director of the Division of Accounting and Corporate Services (DACS). He will head the Management Information Services Branch. Mr. Roelle has served since May 1984 as Managing Liquidator for the Knoxville (Tennessee) Liquidation Site. He succeeds Billy C. Mullican who is retiring.

DACS Director Stanley J. Poling said: "We are delighted Bill Roelle will be rejoining DACS. His experience, integrity and competence will bring a unique value to our management team."

Mr. Roelle, 45, a native of Little Rock, Arkansas, came to the FDIC in 1969 as a research assistant. He became a financial economist in 1972, was assigned to the Executive Office in 1975 as a program analyst and, in 1980, moved to the Division of Liquidation as a senior program analyst. In 1981 he was named Assistant to the Director of DACS, and became Assistant Director of the Division in 1982. He was named Associate Director of the Corporate Services Branch in 1983.

Mr. Roelle holds a B.S. degree in economics from the University of Maryland. He and his wife, Lynda, have three children.
