FDIC APPROVES DEPOSIT ASSUMPTION OF BREAUX BRIDGE BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, BREAUX BRIDGE, LOUISIANA

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the assumption of the deposit liabilities of Breaux Bridge Bank and Trust Company, Breaux Bridge, Louisiana, by MidSouth National Bank, Lafayette, Louisiana.

The failed bank's two offices will reopen on Friday, September 18, 1987, as branches of MidSouth National Bank and its depositors automatically will become depositors of the assuming bank, subject to approval by the appropriate court.

Breaux Bridge Bank and Trust Company, with total assets of $23.2 million, was closed on Thursday, September 17, 1987, by Fred C. Dent, Jr., Louisiana Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and the FDIC was named receiver.

MidSouth National Bank will assume about $28.9 million in 5,600 deposit accounts and has agreed to pay the FDIC a purchase premium of $327,000. It also will purchase certain of the failed bank's assets for $7.6 million. To facilitate the transaction, the FDIC will advance about $21.1 million to the assuming bank and will retain assets of the failed bank with a book value of about $15.6 million.

The Board of Directors approved the deposit assumption under its authority to do so whenever it determines that such a transaction will reduce the potential loss to the FDIC.

The FDIC will recover a portion of its outlay through the liquidation of assets not transferred to the assuming bank. In this respect, the FDIC notes that its claim will have priority over the claims of nondepositor creditors and shareholders of the closed bank.
