FDIC APPROVES DEPOSIT ASSUMPTION OF FIRST STATE BANK, OAKDALE, NEBRASKA

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the assumption of the deposit liabilities of First State Bank, Oakdale, Nebraska, by First United Bank, Neligh, Nebraska.

The failed bank's sole office will reopen on Friday, December 4, 1987, as First United Bank and its depositors automatically will become depositors of the assuming bank, subject to approval by the appropriate court.

First State Bank, with total assets of $5.9 million, was closed on Thursday, December 3, 1987, by Cynthia H. Milligan, Nebraska Director of Banking and Finance, and the FDIC was named receiver.

First United Bank will assume about $5.6 million in 1,400 deposit accounts and has agreed to pay the FDIC a purchase premium of $67,100. It also will purchase certain of the failed bank's loans and other assets for $4.6 million. To facilitate the transaction, the FDIC will advance about $900,000 to the assuming bank and will retain assets of the failed bank with a book value of about $1.0 million.

The Board of Directors approved the deposit assumption under its authority to do so whenever it determines that such a transaction will reduce the potential loss to the FDIC.

The FDIC will recover a portion of its outlay through the liquidation of assets not transferred to the assuming bank. In this respect, the FDIC notes that its claim will have priority over the claims of nondepositor creditors and shareholders of the closed bank.
