FDIC APPROVES DEPOSIT ASSUMPTION OF CLIMBING HILL SAVINGS BANK, CLIMBING HILL, IOWA

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the assumption of the deposit liabilities of Climbing Hill Savings Bank, Climbing Hill, Iowa, by First Trust & Savings Bank, Merville, Iowa.

The failed bank's sole office will reopen on Friday, December 4, 1987, as a branch of First Trust & Savings Bank and its depositors automatically will become depositors of the assuming bank, subject to approval by the appropriate court.

Climbing Hill Savings Bank, with total assets of $5.3 million, was closed on Thursday, December 3, 1987, by Edward L. Tubbs, Iowa Superintendent of Banks, and the FDIC was named receiver.

First Trust & Savings Bank will assume about $5.1 million in 1,000 deposit accounts and has agreed to pay the FDIC a purchase premium of $10,100. It also will purchase certain of the failed bank's loans and other assets for $2.0 million. To facilitate the transaction, the FDIC will advance about $3.2 million to the assuming bank and will retain assets of the failed bank with a book value of about $3.3 million.

The Board of Directors approved the deposit assumption under its authority to do so whenever it determines that such a transaction will reduce the potential loss to the FDIC.

The FDIC will recover a portion of its outlay through the liquidation of assets not transferred to the assuming bank. In this respect, the FDIC notes that its claim will have priority over the claims of nondepositor creditors and shareholders of the closed bank.
