FDIC TO PAY OFF INSURED DEPOSITORS IN FRENCHMAN VALLEY BANK, PALISADE, NEBRASKA

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved paying off insured depositors in Frenchman Valley Bank, Palisade, Nebraska. The bank, with total assets of $2.7 million, was closed on Thursday, March 10, 1988, by Cynthia H. Milligan, Nebraska Director of Banking and Finance, and the FDIC was named receiver.

The FDIC Board of Directors determined that a payoff of insured depositors was required because no bids were received for the failed bank.

Deposits in Frenchman Valley Bank totaled about $2.6 million in 690 accounts, including about $101,000 in one account that exceeded the federal insurance limit of $100,000. Owners of such uninsured deposits will share proportionately with the FDIC in the proceeds realized from liquidation of the bank's assets.
