FDIC APPROVES DEPOSIT ASSUMPTION OF TOWN AND COUNTRY BANK, BIXBY, OKLAHOMA

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the assumption of the deposit liabilities of Town and Country Bank, Bixby, Oklahoma, by Brookside State Bank, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The failed bank's sole office will reopen on Friday, September 16, 1988, as a branch of Brookside State Bank and its depositors automatically will become depositors of the assuming bank, subject to approval by the appropriate court.

Town and Country Bank, with total assets of $38.9 million, was closed on Thursday, September 15, 1988, by Wayne H. Osborn, Oklahoma Bank Commissioner, and the FDIC was named receiver.

Brookside State Bank will assume about $38.5 million in 2,700 deposit accounts and has agreed to pay the FDIC a purchase premium of $121,750. It also will purchase $21.2 million of the failed bank's loans and other assets, including $1.8 million in small loans. To facilitate the transaction, the FDIC will advance about $17.2 million to the assuming bank and will retain assets of the failed bank with a book value of about $17.7 million.

The Board of Directors approved the deposit assumption under its authority to do so whenever it determines that such a transaction will reduce the potential loss to the FDIC.

The FDIC will recover a portion of its outlay through the liquidation of assets not transferred to the assuming bank. In this respect, the FDIC notes that its claim will have priority over the claims of nondepositor creditors and shareholders of the closed bank.
