FDIC TO PAY OFF INSURED DEPOSITORS IN BUENA VISTA BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, BUENA VISTA, COLORADO

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation today approved paying off insured depositors in Buena Vista Bank and Trust Company, Buena Vista, Colorado. The bank was closed on Thursday, August 28, 1986, by Colorado State Bank Commissioner Richard B. Doby and the FDIC was named receiver.

The FDIC Board of Directors determined that a payoff of insured depositors was required because no acceptable bids were received for a merger of the failed bank.

Deposits in Buena Vista Bank and Trust Company amounted to about $29.7 million in 4,200 accounts, including about $900,000 in 60 accounts that exceeded the federal insurance limit of $100,000. Owners of such uninsured deposits will share proportionately with the FDIC in the proceeds realized from liquidation of the bank's assets.

The Board also voted to make a prompt advance payment to uninsured depositors, based on the estimated present value of assets to be liquidated, equal to 20 percent of the uninsured claims.

If actual collections on the assets, on a present value basis, exceed this estimate, uninsured depositors ultimately will receive additional payments on their claims. The estimate for the advance is believed to be conservative, and it is hoped that actual collections will be higher. If, however, the present value of actual collections should be less than 20 percent, the FDIC insurance fund will absorb the shortfall.
