G. GORDON JONES NAMED
ASSISTANT REGIONAL DIRECTOR IN ATLANTA

The Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has approved the appointment of G. Gordon Jones as Assistant Regional Director for the Atlanta Region of the Division of Bank Supervision (DBS), effective February 16, 1985. Mr. Jones has served since February 1985 as Regional Manager (Credit) in the Atlanta Regional Office of the Division of Liquidation. He succeeds Lawrence E. Morgan, Jr., who has been assigned to the FDIC's Executive Development Program.

DBS Director Robert V. Shumway said: "Mr. Jones has extensive background in bank supervision and examination. His work in the FDIC's Division of Liquidation has broadened his perspective on the Corporation's role and will make him a valuable addition to the DBS management team in Atlanta."

Mr. Jones, 35, came to the FDIC in 1973 as a bank examiner trainee in the Tampa, Florida, Field Office. He became a commissioned examiner in 1976. In 1980 he was promoted to review examiner and moved to the DBS Regional Office in Atlanta. He transferred to the Division of Liquidation in February 1985 and served in that office until his current promotion.

Mr. Jones holds a BS in Finance from the University of Alabama and is a graduate of The Stonier Graduate School of Banking.

He and his wife, Helen, have two children.
