FDIC SUSPENDS WITHDRAWAL PENALTIES FOR BANK
DEPOSITORS VICTIMIZED BY SEVERE STORMS AND FLOODING IN THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA

Regional Director Roy E. Jackson of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation today announced that the FDIC has granted bank depositors in Oklahoma, who suffered losses as a result of severe storms and flooding, temporary exemption from the interest rate regulations that penalize holders of time deposits for withdrawal of funds prior to maturity. The waiver is limited to depositors in Tulsa, Rogers and Wagoner Counties.

Insured State-chartered banks that are not members of the Federal Reserve System, whether or not they are located in the immediate disaster areas, may allow depositors who can show that they have been damaged as a result of the disaster to withdraw all or part of their time deposits before maturity without paying a penalty. Depositors seeking to avail themselves of the suspension will be required to furnish their banks with proof of losses occasioned by this particular disaster.

This suspension is retroactive to May 31, 1984, and will be in effect for six months. This will provide eligible depositors sufficient time to determine their losses and the need for funds.
