FDIC SUSPENDS WITHDRAWAL PENALTIES FOR BANK DEPOSITORS
VICTIMIZED BY ARIZONA FLOODING

Regional Director Charles E. Doster of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation today announced that the FDIC has granted bank depositors in Arizona who suffered losses as a result of storms and flooding temporary exemption from the interest rate regulations that penalize holders of time deposits for withdrawal of funds prior to maturity. This waiver is limited to depositors who suffered storm and flood related losses in Cochise, Gila, Graham, Greenlee, Pima, Pinal, Santa Cruz, and Yavapai Counties, which were designated major disaster areas by Presidential declaration effective October 5, 1983, and as subsequently amended.

Insured State-chartered banks that are not members of the Federal Reserve System, whether or not they are located in the immediate disaster area, may allow depositors who can show that they have been damaged as a result of the disaster to withdraw all or part of their time deposits before maturity without paying any penalty. Depositors seeking to avail themselves of the suspension will be required to furnish their banks with proof of losses occasioned by this particular disaster.

This suspension is retroactive to October 5, 1983 and will be in effect for six months. This will provide eligible depositors sufficient time to determine their losses and their need for funds.
