FDIC MAKES PUBLIC DECEMBER 1995 ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS; NO ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS SET FOR FEBRUARY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement action taken against banks and individuals in December 1995. No administrative hearings are scheduled during February.

The FDIC processed a total of 14 final orders in December. These included one cease-and-desist order, one call report penalty, one removal and prohibition order, three voluntary terminations of insurance, six terminations of cease-and-desist orders and two adjudicated decisions.

Copies of the orders referenced above can be obtained upon written request to the Office of Corporate Communications, FDIC, 550 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20429 (or FAX 202/898-8565); or by inspection Monday through Friday in the FDIC's Reading Room, Room 7118, at the 17th Street location. A list of the orders made public today follows.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
