FDIC Makes Public July Enforcement Actions

No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for September 2020

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in July. There are no administrative hearings scheduled for September 2020.

The FDIC issued 9 orders in July 2020. The administrative enforcement actions in those orders consisted of one consent order under 8(b), one order of prohibition under 8(e), six Section 19 orders, and one order terminating deposit insurance.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
