FDIC Makes Public October Enforcement Actions

No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for December 2021

WASHINGTON - The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in October. There are no administrative hearings scheduled for December 2021.

The FDIC issued three Orders in October 2021. The administrative enforcement actions in those three Orders consisted of one Order to Pay Civil Money Penalty, one Consent Order, and one Section 19 Order.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
