FDIC Makes Public December Enforcement Actions

No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for February 2021

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in December. There are no administrative hearings scheduled for February 2021.

The FDIC issued 10 orders in December 2020. The administrative enforcement actions in those orders consisted of three consent orders, one termination of consent order, three section 19 orders, two removal and prohibition orders and two orders to pay civil money penalties.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
