FDIC Makes Public November Enforcement Actions; No Administrative Hearing Scheduled

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in November. No administrative hearing is scheduled for January 2007.

The FDIC processed a total of 17 orders in November. These included five removal and prohibition orders, five civil money penalty orders, four cease and desist orders, and three terminations of orders to cease and desist.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 3501 N. Fairfax Drive, Room E-1002, Arlington, VA (telephone 703-562-2200 or 877-275-3342). The orders will also be made available online within a week of the issuance of this news release. To view the orders online, visit the FDIC's Web page at <http://www.fdic.gov/bank/individual/enforcement/neworders.html>. A list of orders made public today follows.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
