FDIC Makes Public September Enforcement Actions; No Administrative Hearings Scheduled

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in September. No administrative hearing is scheduled for November.

The FDIC processed a total of 17 orders in September. These included seven removal and prohibition orders, seven civil money penalty orders, one cease and desist order, one written agreement, and one termination of insurance order.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 3501 N. Fairfax Drive, Room E1002, Arlington, VA (telephone 703-562-2200 or 877-275-3342). The orders will also be made available on-line within a week of the issuance of this news release. To view the orders on-line, visit the FDIC's Web page at <http://www.fdic.gov/bank/individual/enforcement/neworders.html>. A list of orders made public today follows.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
