FDIC Makes Public February Enforcement Actions No Administrative Hearing Scheduled

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in February. No administrative hearing is scheduled for April.

The FDIC processed a total of 14 orders in February. These included seven removal and prohibition orders, five civil money penalty orders, one cease and desist order, and one termination of a cease and desist order.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 877-275-3342 or e-mail at: publicinfo@fdic.gov. The orders will also be made available on-line within a week of the issuance of this news release. To view the orders on-line, visit the FDIC's Web page at <http://www.fdic.gov/bank/individual/enforcement/neworders.html>. A list of orders made public today follows.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
