FDIC Makes Public February Enforcement Actions; No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for April 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in February. No administrative hearings are scheduled for April 2013.

The FDIC issued a total of 46 orders in February and one notice. The orders included: four consent orders; six removal and prohibition orders; eight civil money penalties; two prompt corrective action directives; three voluntary terminations of insurance; ten section 19 orders; two modification orders; ten orders terminating consent orders and cease and desist orders; one order terminating notice of prohibition from further participation; and one notice of intention to prohibit from further participation, notice of assessment of civil money penalty, findings of fact, conclusions of law, order to pay and notice of hearing.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 3501 Fairfax Drive, Room E-1002, Arlington, VA (telephone 703-562-2200 or 1-877-275-3342). To view all orders online, visit the FDIC's Web page by clicking the link below.

February 2013 Enforcement Decisions and Orders

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
