FDIC Makes Public May Enforcement Actions; No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for July 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in May. No administrative hearings are scheduled for July 2014.

The FDIC issued a total of 39 orders. The orders included: two consent orders; one prompt corrective action directive; seven removal and prohibition orders; seven section 19 orders; three civil money penalties; 16 orders terminating consent orders and cease and desist orders; one order dismissing notice of assessment of civil money penalties and order to pay; one order terminating supervisory prompt corrective action directive; and one final order of dismissal.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 3501 Fairfax Drive, Room E-1002, Arlington, VA (telephone 703-562-2200 or 1-877-275-3342). To view all orders online, visit the FDIC's Web page by clicking the link below.

May 2014 Enforcement Decisions and Orders

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
