FDIC Makes Public April Enforcement Actions; No Administrative Hearings Scheduled for June 2014

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) today released a list of orders of administrative enforcement actions taken against banks and individuals in April. No administrative hearings are scheduled for June 2014.

The FDIC issued a total of 31 orders and one notice. The orders included: two consent orders; two prompt corrective action directives; eight removal and prohibition orders; three section 19 orders; one civil money penalty; one order amending order to pay; 14 orders terminating consent orders and cease and desist orders; and one notice.

Copies of the orders referred to above can be obtained from or inspected at the FDIC's Public Information Center, 3501 Fairfax Drive, and Room E-1002, Arlington, VA (telephone 703-562-2200 or 1-877-275-3342). To view all orders online, visit the FDIC's Web page by clicking the link below.

Congress created the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 1933 to restore public confidence in the nation's banking system. It promotes the safety and soundness of these institutions by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to which they are exposed. The FDIC receives no federal tax dollars — insured financial institutions fund its operations.
