Banker Teleconference Series

Timely and Comprehensive Information from the FDIC

Summary:

The FDIC's Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection (DCP) offers a series of events for bankers, including teleconferences and webinars, to maintain open lines of communication and update bank management and staff on important bank regulatory and emerging issues in the compliance and consumer protection area. The next event is a teleconference scheduled for July 30, 2015, that will focus on youth savings programs. FDIC staff will discuss ways that banks can link financial education efforts to the opening of saving accounts for school-aged children and share early observations from the FDIC's Youth Savings Pilot. Staff also will discuss the February 2015 Interagency Guidance to Encourage Institutions' Youth Savings Programs and address related, frequently asked questions. This session is free, but registration is required.
