Highlights:

- Call Report changes that take effect in March 2014 include the following:
 - Questions about international remittance transfers for all institutions and, for those institutions with more than 100 transactions per calendar year, the estimated number and dollar value of international remittance transfers. This information will be collected in Schedule RC-M, Memoranda, initially in March 2014 and semiannually thereafter each June and December.
 - The reporting in Schedule RC-M of trade names used to identify physical offices and addresses of public-facing Internet Web sites at which the reporting institution accepts or solicits deposits from the public.
 - A question in Schedule RC-E, Deposit Liabilities, asking whether the reporting institution offers deposit account products primarily intended for consumers.
 - For institutions with $1 billion or more in total assets that offer consumer deposit account products, the total balances of these products in Schedule RC-E.
- In addition, a revised version of the regulatory capital components and ratios portion of Call Report Schedule RC-R, Regulatory Capital, takes effect in March 2014 for advanced approaches institutions and in March 2015 for all other institutions.
- The Call Report forms and an instruction book update for March 2014 are available on the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council's Web site at http://www.ffiec.gov/ffiec_report_forms.htm and the FDIC's Web site at <http://www.fdic.gov/callreports>.
- Banks should review FIL-14-2014 and its accompanying Supplemental Instructions for further information on the first quarter 2014 Call Report. FIL-14-2014 can be accessed at <http://www.fdic.gov/news/news/financial/2014/fil14014.html>.
