Highlights:

- Severe storms, tornadoes and flooding that occurred on April 23 and 24, 2010, have caused significant property damage in areas of Mississippi.
- Federal disasters were declared on April 29, 2010, for selected counties in Mississippi.
- The FDIC is encouraging banks to work constructively with borrowers experiencing difficulties beyond their control because of damage caused by the severe weather.
- Extending repayment terms, restructuring existing loans, or easing terms for new loans, if done in a manner consistent with sound banking practices, can contribute to the health of the community and serve the long-term interests of the lending institution.
- The FDIC also will consider regulatory relief from certain filing and publishing requirements.
