

SPECIAL ALERT

FIL-89-2001
October 22, 2001

TO: CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

SUBJECT: Counterfeit Official Bank Checks

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) has learned that counterfeit checks have been drawn on four separate banks and are in circulation.

- The first is Corus Bank, Chicago, Illinois. Counterfeit cashier's checks have been drawn on Corus Bank and are in circulation. Attached for your information is a copy of one of the counterfeit items. Similar items have been circulated using the same check number and the same amount. The checks have appeared in the New England area.

Any information you have about this matter should be brought to the attention of:

Mr. Warren Goldberg
Legal/Fraud Manager
Corus Bank
3179 Clark Street
Chicago, Illinois 60657
Telephone: (773) 832-7988
Fax: (773) 244-7921

- The second bank is First Savings Bank, Woodbridge, New Jersey. Counterfeit teller's checks been drawn on First Savings Bank and also are in circulation. Attached is a copy of one of the counterfeit items and a copy of one of the bank's legitimate checks. The perpetrator has attempted to negotiate the checks in the state of Georgia and in South Africa.

Any information you have about this matter should be brought to the attention of:
